“Sweet Hour of Prayer”

Sweet hour of prayer! Sweet hour of prayer!
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father’s throne
Make all my wants and wishes known.
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter’s snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer!

Dear Church family,

I am sure that many of you still remember the lyrics of this “old” song, and for some of us this might even bring back sweet memories.

For me, it makes me recall the times when even though under the communist regime and knowing that we would be facing persecution and teasing in school the next day, my sister and I along with our family would attend the midweek prayer services in our Baptist Church back in Europe. I remember our pastor often leading this song in those prayer meetings and we coming together as a church to the throne of God.

I am excited to remind you that starting this Thursday our church will have a midweek prayer service. It will start at 7:00 PM and it will last about one hour. It will be a time of fellowship, singing, hearing from God through His Word and us talking to God in prayer.

Here are some of the things that we will be praying for:

- Our Church
- Our Town
- Our Nation
- Our Families
- Our Schoolmates and Workmates
- Our Government
- Missionaries
- The Unsaved
- The Sick

..... and so much more!

Children, teenagers, middle aged and senior citizens, God is calling us all as members of the body of Christ to be together and pray as a church. When God’s people come together and pray, God promises to hear and to answer. I strongly believe that this midweek service will bring us closer to God and closer to each other... it will be like a breath of fresh air, a spiritual oasis in in middle of the week.

See you soon!
Pastor John Todor

THIS IS MY CHURCH

It is composed of people like me.

We make it what it is.

I want it to be a lamp that shows people the way to God through Jesus Christ.

It will be friendly, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help to fill them.

It will do a great work, if I work.

It will make generous gifts to many causes if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I bring them.

It will be a church of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a church with a noble spirit if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these.

With the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my church to be.

- Easter flowers - As a way of beautifying our place of worship for Easter, Lilies/Mums/Azaleas are available to purchase. Pls. see the enclosed flyer. Pls. staple your check to the form and place in the foyer by Sun., Mar. 10.

ADVENT

A message of hope (white candle)

A message of peace (white candle)

A message of joy (pink candle)

A message of love (white candle)

-- Christmas Eve (middle large white candle)

Advent readings from John Piper

http://www.desiringgod.org/ResourceLibrary/NarrativePoems/ByDate/1355\_The\_Apostle\_Paul/

NOVEMBER 26

Rooted in the Latin word adventus, meaning "coming" or "arrival,"

Advent is a season of spiritual preparation both for Christmas, when Christians mark Jesus' birth, and for his second coming on Judgment Day. Advent articulates that sense of hope, of anticipation, that God has worked in history and will continue to work in history,

(light white candle) Today we light the candle of hope. We can have hope because God is faithful and will keep the promises He made to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus, who came as a baby to a world in need of hope. (Isaiah 9:6-7 and Matthew 1:18-21)

DECEMBER 3

(light 2 white candles--not middle) Today we light the candle of peace, knowing that Jesus alone can make us feel at rest in this chaotic world. He calms our hearts as we await his second coming.

In Philippians 4, Paul writes, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." May God grant us peace as we wait for Christ's glorious return. (Luke 2:1-7)

DECEMBER 10

(light pink candle and 2 white candles--not middle) Today we light the candle of joy. The angels sang a message of JOY! In a world that finds pleasure in the abundance of material possessions, we find our true joy in Jesus Christ. We take joy this Christmas season as we look forward to his glorious return, when he will set us free from this godless age. (Luke 2:7-15)

- Youth Group Event- Ann Asprey Erdmann will be guest speaking – "Can God Use Your Hurts?" The entire church family is welcome to come! Ann will tell her family's story - a brief overview, life with cancer, their kids, good times and tough times and a celebration of life. She will talk on what God is teaching her through all this and how the book came to be that she wrote.

DECEMBER 17

(light 3 white candles--not middle and pink candle) Today we light the candle of love. It symbolizes Christ love. God sent His only Son to earth to save us, because He loves us! (John 3:16-17)

DECEMBER 24

(light the middle white candle then all other candles) The fifth candle symbolizes Christ as the light of the world, the heart and reason of the season--God giving light to the world. Its location is in the center as Christ's light is central and radiant. This reminds us that Jesus is the spotless Lamb of God, sent to wash away our sins!

"The churches that take Advent seriously do not rush into Christmas." "The way I put it here is, the church gives us Advent to keep us from rushing headlong into the manger, because too often we forget who it is we're welcoming."

THE LOVE THE GOD

The love of God is greater far
Than tongue or pen can ever tell;
It goes beyond the highest star,
And reaches to the lowest hell.
The guilty pair, bowed down with care,
God gave His Son to win;
His erring child He reconciled,
And pardoned from his sin.

(Chorus)

Oh, love of God, how rich and pure!
How measureless and strong!
It shall forevermore endure—
The saints' and angels' song.

Could we with ink the ocean fill,
And were the skies of parchment made;
Were every stalk on earth a quill.
And every man a scribe by trade;
To write the love of God above
Would drain the ocean dry;
Nor could the scroll contain the whole.
Tho' stretched from sky to sky.

MANSION OVER THE HILLTOP

I'm satisfied with just a cottage below,
A little silver, and a little gold;
But in that city where the ransomed will shine.
I want a gold one that's silver lined.

(Chorus)

I've got a mansion just over the hilltop,
In that bright land where we'll never grow old,
And someday yonder we will nevermore wander
But walk on streets that are purest gold.

Don't think me poor or deserted or lonely,
I'm not discouraged, I'm Heavenbound;
I'm just a pilgrim in search of a city,
I want a mansion, a harp and a crown.

THE LOVE THE GOD

The love of God is greater far
Than tongue or pen can ever tell;
It goes beyond the highest star,
And reaches to the lowest hell.
The guilty pair, bowed down with care,
God gave His Son to win;
His erring child He reconciled,
And pardoned from his sin.

(Chorus)

Oh, love of God, how rich and pure!
How measureless and strong!
It shall forevermore endure—
The saints' and angels' song.

Could we with ink the ocean fill,
And were the skies of parchment made;
Were every stalk on earth a quill.
And every man a scribe by trade;
To write the love of God above
Would drain the ocean dry;
Nor could the scroll contain the whole.
Tho' stretched from sky to sky.

MANSION OVER THE HILLTOP

I'm satisfied with just a cottage below,
A little silver, and a little gold;
But in that city where the ransomed will shine.
I want a gold one that's silver lined.

(Chorus)

I've got a mansion just over the hilltop,
In that bright land where we'll never grow old,
And someday yonder we will nevermore wander
But walk on streets that are purest gold.

Don't think me poor or deserted or lonely,
I'm not discouraged, I'm Heavenbound;
I'm just a pilgrim in search of a city,
I want a mansion, a harp and a crown.

OVER THE SUNSET MOUNTAINS

Over the sunset mountains, someday I'll softly go;
Into the arms of Jesus, He who has loved me so.

(Chorus)

Over the sunset mountains Heaven awaits for me,
Over the sunset mountains, Jesus my Saviour I'll see.

Toiling with all be ended, shadows will flee away;
Sorrow will be forgotten—Oh, what a wonderful day!

WE WORSHIP AND ADORE YOU

We worship and adore You,
Bowing down before You,
Songs of praises singing, hallelujahs ringing.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, Amen. (Repeat)
