ADVENT

A message of hope (white candle)
A message of peace (white candle)
A message of joy (pink candle)
A message of love (white candle)
-- Christmas Eve (middle large white candle)

Advent readings from John Piper

NOVEMBER 26

Rooted in the Latin word adventus, meaning "coming" or "arrival," Advent is a season of spiritual preparation both for Christmas, when Christians mark Jesus' birth, and for his second coming on Judgment Day. Advent articulates that sense of hope, of anticipation, that God has worked in history and will continue to work in history,

(light white candle) Today we light the candle of hope. We can have hope because God is faithful and will keep the promises He made to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus, who came as a baby to a world in need of hope. (Isaiah 9:6-7 and Matthew 1:18-21)

DECEMBER 3

(light 2 white candles--not middle) Today we light the candle of peace, knowing that Jesus alone can make us feel at rest in this chaotic world. He calms our hearts as we await his second coming.

In Philippians 4, Paul writes, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." May God grant us peace as wait for Christ's glorious return. (Luke 2:1-7)

DECEMBER 10

(light pink candle and 2 white candles--not middle) Today we light the candle of joy. The angels sang a message of JOY! In a world that finds pleasure in the abundance of material possessions, we find our true joy in Jesus Christ. We take joy this Christmas season as we look forward to his glorious return, when he will set us free from this godless age. (Luke 2:7-15)

DECEMBER 17

(light 3 white candles--not middle and pink candle) Today we light the candle of love. It symbolizes Christ love. God sent His only Son to earth to save us, because He loves us! (John 3:16-17)

DECEMBER 24

(light the middle white candle then all other candles) The fifth candle symbolizes Christ as the light of the world, the heart and reason of the season--God giving light to the world. Its location is in the center as Christ's light is central and radiant. This reminds us that Jesus is the spotless Lamb of God, sent to wash away our sins!

"The churches that take Advent seriously do not rush into Christmas." "The way I put it here is, the church gives us Advent to keep us from rushing headlong into the manger, because too often we forget who it is we're welcoming."

- Mon., Dec. 4, 6:30 p.m. — All ladies of the church are invited to the Channels for Christ Christmas Party @ Kay Bishop's (400 13th Ave. NW, Kasson). Join us for a night of food, fellowship, singing carols, reading the Christmas story by candlelight, games and exchanging gifts! Please bring an appetizer and sweet treat to share as well as a $5 grab bag gift.

- Fri., Dec. 7, 6:30 p.m. — Christmas Party for the Adult SS classes @ Chuck & Kay Bishop's. Pls. bring an appetizer, sweet treat (opt.) and white elephant gift. We will also be collecting baked goods for the Ronald McDonald House.

- Sun., Dec. 3 — K-M CARE & SHARE

We are sponsoring (1) family through the K-M Care & Share program this Christmas season. Please select 1 or more tags off the tree in the foyer for items you'd like to purchase. Pls. return your new, unwrapped item by Sun., Dec. 3. Pls. provide gift receipts if possible.
